

Festival of Social Science

Training sessions

Festival Engagement Festival Engagement – 15th May 12 pm & 9th July 12 pm

Explore how to plan and deliver the most interesting, memorable and engaging events possible. This session is packed with examples and ideas for how to create festivals events. You will discover how to identify target audiences to create a bespoke experience and how to work effectively with partners. Whether you are new to engagement or looking for new directions this session is packed with tips to begin planning your activity.

Practical Planning & Evaluation – 23rd May 12 pm & 16th July 12 pm

Discover how to plan and evaluate your festival activity. This session will cover the key planning milestones, showing simple actions to take in order to create a smooth running activity. We will also cover how to evaluate public engagement, giving you all the tools you need to embed evaluation through your event in interesting ways.

Online and hybrid engagement - 3rd June 12 pm & 23rd July 12 pm

This session will guide you through how to create interactive and lively online and hybrid sessions, showing you how to go beyond the standard Zoom webinar. We will showcase techniques to keep sessions interactive, tips to create professional online experiences and share how to set up for hybrid experiences

The sessions will run in May/June and will be repeated in July for those unable to attend the first sessions, you will only need to attend one of each session.

All event leaders should attend 'Festival Engagement' and 'Practical Planning & Evaluation'. Event leaders who will be delivering online and hybrid events should also attend 'Online & Hybrid Engagement'.

To sign up to the session please click the link below:

<https://forms.office.com/e/ks2DawhrFa>